

GHANA RESOLUTIONS AT THE LAUNCH OF THE AFRICAN WOMEN IN MINING NETWORK (AFWIMN)

ELMINA, GHANA, 8-10TH SEPTEMBER, 2003

Representatives of twelve African countries¹, all involved in mining activities met in Ghana during 8 to 10th September 2003. At this meeting, the participants resolved the following:

- Recognizing that there are many women involved in mining activities in Africa;
- Recognizing that African women involved in mining activities face numerous problems including lack of technical know how and access to finance;
- Recognizing that there is potential for capacity building of the women if experiences are shared within Africa;
- Noting the aspirations of the NEPAD in regional cooperation and sharing of information;
- Noting the recommendations made at a special meeting of African Mining Ministers held in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso, in December 2000, that the SADC Women in Mining Trust expands and covers the whole continent to form an African Women in mining network to address issues concerning women involved in mining in Africa;
- Noting that the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) has recognized and pledged support for AFWIMN;
- Noting the vast mineral resources that Africa is endowed with;
- Recognizing that empowering women will contribute significantly to the alleviation of poverty;

We the participants of the Ghana meeting of African Women involved in Mining activities RESOLVE to form an “African Women in Mining Network” herein called “AFWIMN”.
